SPIRITS FOR EVERY JOURNEY

From gourmet escapes to rugged adventures and laidback beachside moments, three premium offerings elevate travel into an artful experience

Art Meets Travel

Travel is as much about savouring a place as it is about tasting its essence, and Arthaus Blended Malt Scotch Whisky captures both beautifully. A harmonious fusion of five fine single malts from Scotland's celebrated Highlands and Speyside regions, Arthaus is as layered and evocative as a well-planned journey. Its inspiration from the Bauhaus movement is evident in its philosophy of simplicity, functionality and artistry—values that resonate with discerning travellers seeking refinement in every experience.

It's great to have when you are, say, unwinding in a mountain lodge in the Nilgiris, a glass of Arthaus in hand, its bright vanilla and citrus notes as crisp as the air outside. Or pair it with a plate of gourmet cheese and charcuterie in a quaint Bandra bistro, the honey and dried fruit undertones marrying effortlessly with rich flavours. The whisky's warm, nutty finish lingers like memories of an unforgettable trip, making it the perfect companion for slow evenings abroad.

More than just a drink, Arthaus is "Art. Bottled." Every sip is a sensorial journey that invites you to appreciate craftsmanship, tradition and design in liquid form. Whether enjoyed neat at a high-altitude retreat or in a classic cocktail while watching the sun set over the sea, Arthaus makes travel experiences richer, more memorable, and deeply indulgent.

The Spirit of Adventure

Some journeys are meant for the bold—for those who seek out dirt tracks over highways, and wilderness camps over plush resorts. Woodburns Contemporary Indian Whisky is crafted for exactly this kind of explorer. Smooth yet robust, it is a whisky that matches the grit and thrill of outdoor adventures, making it the
