UPFRONT

HEALTHWATCH: HIDDEN COST OF HIGH SUGAR PG 13

GRAPHIC: THE AGE OF HER CHOICE PG 14

▸ NATIONAL SECURITY

The Bioterror Conspiracy

A Gujarat ATS raid uncovers a suspected ricin terror plot, involving a Hyderabad doctor with Islamic State links. Is India prepared for it?

By JUMANA SHAH | Graphic by NILANJAN DAS / AI

1. Drones drop a consignment of arms across the India–Pakistan border into Tibbi village in Hanumangarh, Rajasthan

2. Azad Suleman Sheikh and Mohammad Suhail Khan, both from UP, collect arms from an unknown man in Tibbi; set off for Ahmedabad on train

3. The duo later head to Kalol near Gandhinagar, drop the weapons at a deserted spot, leave by shared public transport

4. Gujarat ATS receives a tip-off about a suspected terror plot; starts tracking Dr Ahmed Mohiyuddin Saiyyad, a China-trained doctor from Hyderabad

5. Saiyyad, driving a silver Ford Figo with an Andhra registration, picks up the arms consignment from Kalol later that evening

6. ATS officers intercept him near Adalaj toll plaza around 9.30 pm. Seizure: two Glock pistols, one Beretta and 30 live cartridges. Also, four litres of castor oil