29 The conundrum begin in 2013 when Ukraine president Viktor Yanukovych withdrew its government plans to be closest trade ties with the European Union. It can be considered as the one of the worst ever crisis after the disintegration of the Soviet Union in Ukraine. The crisis was due to paucity of policies in solving the forty five million people multiple identities in Ukraine. The peace process jeopardized when Crimean parliament voted for joining in Russian federation. Russia and EU blaming each other for the escalation of the crisis, both have the different views for the issue. EU wants expand NATO’s membership as so that could bolster its strength if war like situation comes between West and Russia, where as Russia intends to hinder their policies. For Russia Ukraine is their legitimate territory. So, it is very intriguing phase in West-Russia relations.
