

Fig. 2.4 BRICS percentage share of public expenditure on education to GDP (%) (Source BRICS Joint Statistical Publication 2020, p. 82)

The data says that other BRICS members have consistently invested in education except for India and Russia. Because, it will create human resources, which will enhance the strength of the BRICS economy. The below-mentioned data primarily talks about it.

The below-mentioned data primarily talks about the human resources classification and their status. The information has been gleaned from the BRICS Joint Statistical Publication 2020 (Table 2.11).

Table 2.11 Selected data on the labor force of the BRICS countries

| | | 2015 | 2016 | 2017 | 2018 | 2019 |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| Brazil | Labor force (million persons) | 101.2 | 102.7 | 104.3 | 105.5 | 106.5 |
| | Unemployment rate (%) | 8.7 | 11.5 | 12.5 | 12.3 | 12.1 |
| | Age groups (%) | | | | | |
| | 15–24 years | 15.9 | 14.4 | 14.8 | | |
| | 25–59 years | 77.1 | 78.4 | 77.8 | | |
| | 60 years and older | 6.9 | 7.1 | 7.4 | | |