

WHIMSICAL TOUCHES

and serene. We achieved this by layering the spaces rather than crowding them, ensuring every design choice was expressive without falling into excess. The presence of the family's birds is poetically woven throughout the entire design narrative. From the avian motifs embroidered onto the dining chairs to the painted wildlife on the master bedroom walls, the interior design remains in a constant, elegant dialogue with the living creatures that call it home.
