SURAT

PATNA

PTI

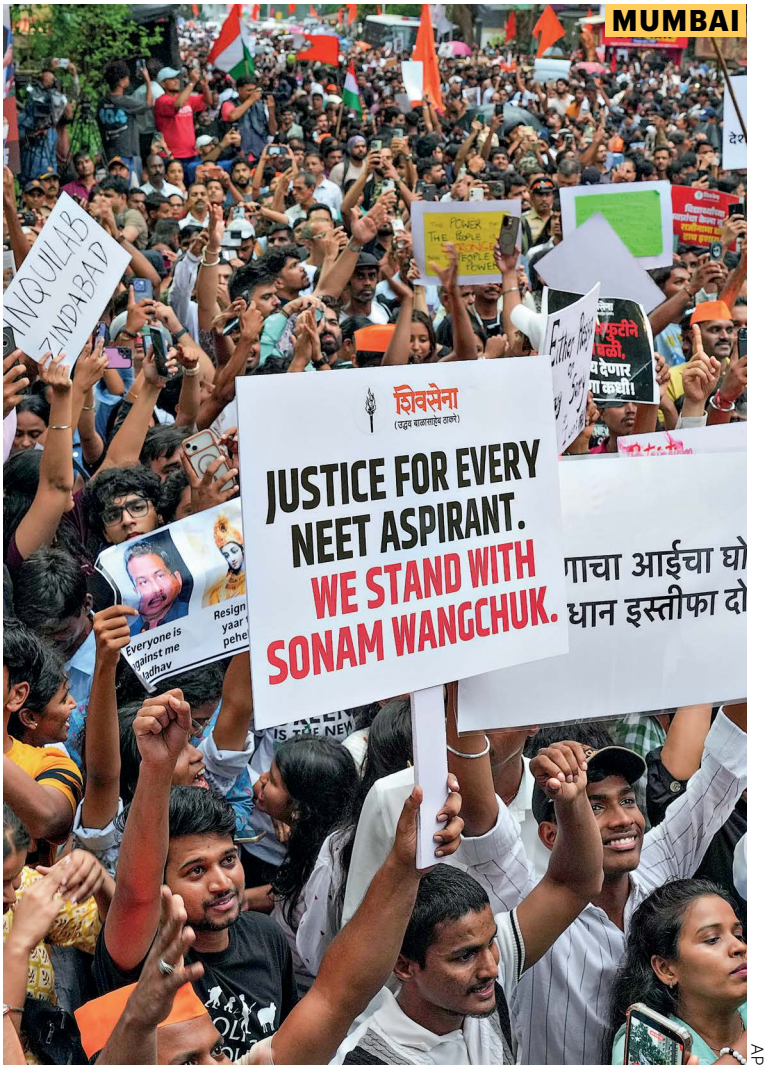

At first, my father did not understand why this movement was happening. Then, we talked. Now he is standing with me. At the very least, the government should talk to us, take responsibility and move towards a solution. If there is no dialogue, then what remains the difference between democracy and dictatorship?

KOLKATA

MUMBAI

AP

DEMAND FOR JUSTICE Taking their cue from protesters in Delhi, students and opposition party workers rose up in solidarity across Indian cities