GEN Z TAKES AIM WITH A ROAST

Dry jokes, biting satire and anti-establishment rap songs are cropping up in protest sites around the country, exemplifying a generation that can balance the gravity of a cause with a moment of levity

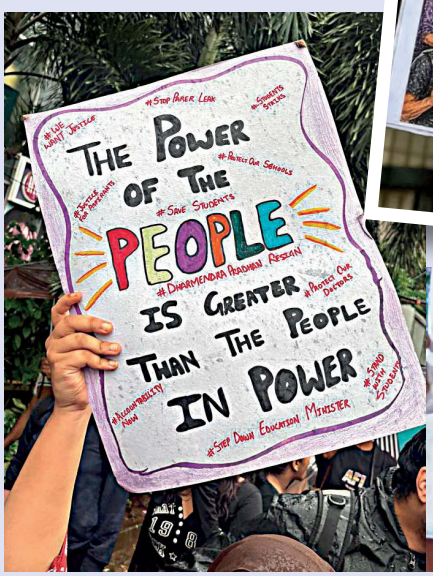

96 per cent in South Korea.

India has 371 million people in the 15-29 age group, more than the entire population of the United States. They are the most educated generation in the country's history, yet many increasingly doubt whether education can still help them move up in life. Among young men, the share enrolled in education fell from 38 per cent in 2017 to 34 per

"REAL CHANGE, NOT SYMBOLISM"

MUDITA KUSHWAHA | 26
Student activist, Krantikari Yuva Sangathan, Delhi

We want concrete and visible change, not symbolism. The paper leak was not an isolated incident—it is the outcome of the growing privatisation of education and recruitment. If the movement is reduced to a mere promise of dialogue, what happens to the struggle of those students who came here hoping for real change?
