SCREAM DE LA CREME

Horror films coming soon to a theatre near you

Expected release date: 2027

the Prime Video series Breathe). Sharma hopes to tell an "emotionally layered" tale that's distinct and contemporary.

▼ TUMBBAD 2

Sohum Shah and team have spent six years perfecting the follow-up to the acclaimed Tumbbad, which told the story of a family worshipping a forbidden god. The sequel unfolds in Pune and sees the return of the first film's co-director, Adesh Prasad, as he helms this fantasy-folkore horror. Big names like Alia Bhatt and Nawazuddin Siddiqui have joined the cast. Expect scale, style and striking visuals.

Expected release date: Dec. 3, 2027

▼ 1920: COLD WINTER

Buoyed by the surprise first week performance of Haunted 3D: Echoes of the Past, Vikram Bhatt (of Raaz fame) and Anand Pandit join hands to deliver another instalment in the 1920 franchise. It comes with the tagline 'Beware the innocent. They hide the darkest evil.'

Expected release date: 2027

▶ RAGINI 3

Ekta Kapoor's Balaji Motion Pictures continues the Ragini series with the third instalment, a 'date night horror'. Shashanka Ghosh directs Tamannaah Bhatia and Junaid Khan in a horror that will blend "thrills, humour and romance".

▶ BAARA NUMBER

In his upcoming directorial venture, stand-up comic, actor and filmmaker Vir Das gives Indian audiences a taste of found-footage psychological horror, a genre that first gained traction after The Blair Witch Project and Paranormal Activity.

₹100 cr

The one-month collections of Obsession in India, making it the highest-grossing Hollywood film of 2026

OBSESSION (2026)

Directed by 25-year-old newcomer Curry Barker, the film is about a young man whose wish to be loved by his friend has unsettling and bloody consequences. A sleeper hit, it collected Rs 100 crore in India and has become the highest-grossing Hollywood film of 2026 and the biggest in the horror genre.