

7 Paws for Effect

Why should humans have all the design fun? UCUORO has unveiled its first-ever pet furniture collection for Summer 2026, proving that your furry friend's bed doesn't have to ruin your living room's aesthetic. Developed with veterinarians and pet behaviourists, this 10-piece line-up across feeding, sleeping, and play ensures your pet lives in the lap of luxury. From ergonomic loungers that feel like a back rub to hideaway stools and interactive rockers, founder Unnati Varma treats pet gear with high-end lounge furniture integrity.

8 Coastal Glow

If you can't jet off to Italy, just flip a switch instead. Orange Tree has unveiled Vita Amalfi, a sun-drenched lighting collection inspired by the spectacular Amalfi Coast. Thankfully, they completely ditched the clichéd anchor prints and nautical ropes. Instead, this sophisticated edit captures breezy shoreline rhythms using organic forms, ceramic, glass and soft fabrics. Founder Gaurav Jain elevates basic illumination into a moody, tranquil escape with meticulously hand-finished sculptural silhouettes. From pendant lights to the Kaze floor lamp (featured here), it is the ultimate way to bring effortless Mediterranean warmth indoors.
