

9 It's Raining Ideas

Bring in the monsoons minus the chaos with Studio Earth. For the season the brand has dropped two stunning collections, Nyara and Nilofer, perfectly timed to make staying indoors a certified luxury. Nyara brings full-blown safari glamour with bold leopard, zebra and parrot motifs paired with earthy tones and sleek gold accents. Meanwhile, the limited-edition Nilofer collection blends Rajasthani symmetry and Moroccan charm using a soothing palette of indigo blue and dusty rose. Founder Lata Kedia reimagines rainy-day hospitality, ensuring your guests stay for the aesthetics long after the storm passes.
PRICE ₹9,000 to ₹40,000
AT www.shopstudioearth.com

10 Divine Decor

Lotus Arts de Vivre has launched The Three Blessings collection, giving the traditional Chinese deities of fortune, prosperity and longevity—Fu, Lu and Shou—a massive luxury upgrade. Handcrafted from individual blocks of camphor wood, these statues are heavily accessorised with gold-plated headdresses and lapis lazuli earrings. It is the ultimate, aesthetically flawless way to invite wealth, status and long life into your home.
PRICE ₹3.8 lakh onwards AT www.ladv.com

11 The Style File

Those tired of furniture that lacks personality will love Rutam IntArch's new curation. The Table Series, reimagines everyday surfaces through a wonderfully eclectic lens. Melding robust materials like mild steel, Burma teak and marble, this collection is split into three distinct design moods. For the hopeless romantics, Can I Call You Rose serves up delicate, botanical-inspired wrought iron curves. Workaholics can lean on the sleek, ultra-adaptable Anywhere Anytime range. Meanwhile, the unapologetically bold Kooky line injects pure joy with vibrant colours and eccentric shapes. Your living room conversations just got a massive upgrade.
PRICE on request
AT www.rutamintarch.com