LIQUID LUXURY

From mud walled poetry in Mumbai to a high tech oasis in Bangalore, the contemporary bathroom sheds its clinical skin for hyper customisation and raw authenticity

By RIDHI KALE

There was a time when the bathroom was design's forgotten stepchild, purely a utilitarian afterthought strictly reserved for ablution. Not anymore. Today, top visionary minds are staging a quiet revolution, transforming the humble washroom into the ultimate sanctuary of emotional expression and high narrative luxury. From Goiz Argi's tactile, mud-walled poetry for actor Rajkummar Rao in Mumbai to R+R Architects' highly sculptural, stone-clad sanctuary in Ahmedabad, these spaces have shed their clinical skin. Whether it is the invisible, high-tech engineering anchoring Storeyboard Design's grand, maximalist oasis in Bangalore or the rich, jewel-box emerald intimacy crafted by Disha Subramanium in Delhi, the modern bathroom is no longer just about utility. It is where raw nature, cutting-edge technology and artisanal craftsmanship collide, proving that true luxury is how deeply a space can make you feel.
