PERFECTING THE ART OF 'ATITHI DEVO BHAVA'

TIMOTHY D. SHIRA
Minister of Agriculture and Farmers' Welfare, Fisheries and Tourism, Meghalaya

"Meghalaya is blessed with many beautiful landscapes. But due to lack of communication and other factors, it was not developed as one of the most sought-after destinations"

PASANG DORJEE SONA
Minister of Education, Rural Works, Parliamentary Affairs, Tourism and Libraries, Arunachal Pradesh

"Regulating footfall is a double-edged sword. If we focus only on restrictions, we may eventually lose tourism revenue and livelihoods that depend on the sector"

HIDDEN INDIA: HOW EMERGING DESTINATIONS ARE FUELLING DOMESTIC TOURISM

VIVEK ACHARYA
MD, Chhattisgarh Tourism Board

"Chhattisgarh is investing in tourism-specific infrastructure, training tribal youth as guides and developing adventure tourism products such as glass bridges, water-based experiences and ecotourism circuits"

PRAMOD G. KRISHNAN
Principal Chief Conservator of Forests, Wildlife, Keralam

"Former poachers and forest-dependent communities have been integrated into tourism activities around protected areas, creating livelihoods while strengthening conservation efforts"
