REIMAGINING BIHAR AS A GLOBAL HERITAGE DESTINATION

CHANDAN CHAUHAN
Joint Secretary cum General Manager, Bihar State Tourism Development Corporation

"Bihar, with its unparalleled historical and spiritual legacy, offers a transformative journey from mere sightseeing to meaningful cultural and spiritual discovery... We are also focusing on river and adventure tourism"

REVIVING FESTIVE TOURISM: THE CHHATTISGARH MODEL

"The most powerful tourism experience comes from living traditions that continue to shape communities. For the benefit of tourists, Chhattisgarh has worked out a festival calendar"

DR S. BHARATHIDASAN
Secretary, Department of Tourism, Chhattisgarh

BEYOND SIGHTSEEING: TRIBAL TOURISM, HOMESTAYS AND COMMUNITY-LED TRAVEL IN INDIA

"Communities should never be encouraged to change their culture for tourists"

RAJ BASU
Founder, Association for Conservation & Tourism (ACT)

"The rapid growth of homestays across the Northeast is an alternative to large-scale tourism infrastructure"

MANISH THAKUR
Additional Secretary, Ministry of Tribal Affairs, Government of India

MALIKA VIRDI
Founder, Himalayan Ark

"Communities are the custodians of destinations...tourism succeeds when it is built on dignity, respect and local ownership"

Photograph by BANDEEP SINGH