A CENTURY OF ACADEMIC DISTINCTION

In its centenary year, SRCC continues to set high standards for commerce education through increasing focus on emerging technology, as well as research and an unparalled alumni network

By SONALI ACHARJEE

Students walking into Shri Ram College of Commerce (SRCC) this year will join at a significant moment—established in 1926, the college is celebrating its centenary, marking 100 years of being one of India's top commerce and economics institutions. Alongside the year-long celebrations, students will encounter a campus that is changing in response to wider shifts in higher education.

Much of that change is being driven by the National Education Policy (NEP) 2020 and the Undergraduate Curriculum Framework (UGCF), which encourage students to study beyond the boundaries of their degree programmes. A commerce student, for instance, can now take courses in, say, Psychology, Environmental Studies or
