FROM LAW BOOKS TO THE SWIMMING POOL: ANEESH S. GOWDA MAKES WAVES FOR INDIA

In a remarkable blend of academic excellence and sporting achievement, Aneesh S. Gowda, a fifth-year BA LLB student at CHRIST (Deemed to be University), Bengaluru, has earned selection to represent India at the 2026 Commonwealth Games in Glasgow, Scotland, and the Asian Games 2026.

Aneesh is currently representing India in the Men's 200m Freestyle and Men's 4×200m Freestyle Relay at the Commonwealth Games. His selection is the latest milestone in an impressive swimming career marked by consistent performances at national and international levels.

Aneesh has represented India at the Asian Games 2023 and the World University Games in 2023 and 2025. His international achievements include being a key member of the Indian team that won the silver medal in the 4×200m Freestyle Relay at the 2025 Asian Aquatics Championships. His performances have established him as one of India's leading freestyle swimmers.

At the university level, Aneesh has achieved an exceptional record. Representing CHRIST University, he was crowned Individual Champion at the All India Inter-University Aquatics Championship for three consecutive years. His medal-winning performances in the 200m, 400m and 1500m freestyle events have contributed significantly to the university's success in collegiate swimming.

His achievements also extend to the national and state levels. Aneesh has earned multiple medals at the Khelo India Youth Games and Khelo India University Games, where his performances earned him the popular moniker "Golden Boy." He also holds several Karnataka state swimming records across different distances.

Balancing an intensive five-year law programme with elite-level training demands extraordinary discipline. Between lectures, examinations, moot courts and internships, Aneesh continues to dedicate countless hours to training in the pool.

His journey stands as an inspiring example of how determination, discipline and academic commitment can coexist with sporting excellence. As he looks ahead to Glasgow and the Asian Games, Aneesh S. Gowda carries with him the aspirations of Indian swimming—and the promise of even greater achievements ahead.
