

MUMBAI | The Grand Theatre | Aug. 1

CHARAN SPARSH

Created by Shantanu Moitra and Kaushiki Chakraborty, Charan Sparsh is a celebration of the guru-shishya tradition that reimagines respect as a shared musical journey rather than a hierarchy. Presented as part of NMACC's annual festival, the performance features Kaushiki Chakraborty, Aruna Sairam, Rakesh Chaurasia, Jayanthi Kumaresh, Ambi Subramaniam and others. Solo performances lead into a large collaborative production, bringing together generations, traditions and instruments in an uplifting evening of music.

DELHI | Yashobhoomi Convention Center | Aug. 22

PIYUSH MISHRA LIVE IN CONCERT

Piyush Mishra presents an evening where poetry, music and storytelling come together in his distinctive style. Featuring celebrated works including 'Aarambh Hai Prachand', 'Husna' and 'Ik Bagal', the performance blends theatre, literature and cinema into an intimate live experience. Accompanied by a live band, Mishra explores themes of love, rebellion, humour and social reflection.

CHANDRADEEP KUMAR

MUMBAI | Shanmukhananda Hall | Aug. 22

Soul India

Hariharan's Soul India celebrates the richness and diversity of Indian music through a programme that extends far beyond his celebrated film songs and ghazals. The concert moves effortlessly between folk, thumri, ghazal, classical, Bollywood and fusion, highlighting the breadth of India's musical traditions. With his expressive voice and effortless versatility, Hariharan offers audiences an evening that bridges genres while honouring the country's rich musical heritage.

— Compiled by Nikhil Sardana