THE OLD MAP DOESN'T WORK ANYMORE

You dreamed of a career.
An algorithm is already learning it.
Faster. Getting better.

Borders that felt permanent are being redrawn.
Industries are being reshaped.
What seemed stable is fading in real time.
Quietly. Irreversibly.

This is not a warning.
This is the weather.

Those who move forward don't ask what is safe.
They ask what matters now.

That is not instinct.
It can be learned.

The threat and the opportunity are the same thing.
It depends entirely on how you see it.

Find your perspective.
