ELECTRIC AND ETHANOL ARE THE BYWORDS FOR THE SEASON'S NEW LAUNCHES

FLYING FLEA

Royal Enfield's first electric motorcycle, the Flying Flea C6, is now available at an introductory price of Rs 2.79 lakh (ex-showroom), with a Battery-as-a-Service (BaaS) option priced at Rs 1.99 lakh. The FF C6 has a peak power output of 21 bhp, top speed of 115 kmph and a range of 154 km per charge. Rider aids include lean-angle sensing ABS, traction and cruise control and voice assist. A rotary mode switch enables transitions between ride modes.
