E INVESTMENT PARADIGM

“More than the magnitude of the fall in the markets, it is the duration which is worrying everyone. What also mattered was the poor earnings growth”

RISHI KOHLI
Chief Investment Officer, Jio BlackRock Mutual Fund

“This is the best macro situation we have been in, after a very long time. Retail investors have been extremely patient, and not pressing the redemption button”

KAILASH KULKARNI
CEO, HSBC Mutual Fund

MYTHOS SCARE: HOW REAL IS THE CHALLENGE FOR INDIAN MARKETS

“Technology today is the new geopolitical tool that can be used to dictate terms. Five-hundred years back, it was countries with superior technologies that were able to colonise others. AI is just the latest version of that reality”

“India currently has an allocation of around Rs 10,300 crore for over five years under IndiaAI Mission. What we need is 10x of that and not over the next 3-4 years, but an annual Rs 10,000 crore budget if we want to secure our $4 trillion economy”

SRIKANTH VELAMAKANNI
Group Chief Executive, Fractal; Chairperson, Nasscom

HOT MONEY, HARD CHOICES: CAN INDIA TAME THE FOREIGN FLOW TSUNAMI?

“India had a very clear framework for capital control and capital flows for several decades. We preferred equity and investment to debt.... But is the government now saying that it is okay to borrow short-term? If so, it needs to be discussed much more”

ILA PATNAIK
Chief Economist, Aditya Birla Group

“There have been several occasions where the retail inflation has not shot up as much as WPI. So, I don’t see inflation as a big worry, so the central bank can wait and watch and not resort to a rate hike”

D.K. JOSHI
Chief Economist, Crisil

“The RBI’s measures are going to be positive for the balance of payments situation. On the debt side, we can see lots of things happening in a positive direction, but when it comes to equity, we’ll have to wait for some time”

MADAN SABNAVIS
Chief Economist, Bank of Baroda
