With 226 suites with private terraces, five restaurants, a sprawling spa, seven bars, a wine vault, and an art collection, Luminara has all the makings of a chic floating resort. The onshore excursions vary from watching black bears hunt for salmon, spotting humpback whales to soaring over Alaska's glaciers on a seaplane. On board, indulge in a pampering spa session, gaze at the rivers of ice or linger over a decadent dinner. Wine lovers can book a private dinner at the wine cellar where vintage pours from the world's best vineyards are the highlight.
