Highland Fling

Glenmorangie's sherry cask maturation journey has punctuated its aged portfolio with The Lasanta 15 Years Old. The interplay of bourbon casks, which lend soft elegance, and Oloroso sherry casks that impart depth and spice, create a sophisticated marriage of indulgence and balance. The result: a complex yet approachable profile, with notes of raisins, honey, toffee and clove, lifted by gentle hints of cinnamon. It's time to toast layered performances.
