The FIFA World Cup Luxury Escape: Tequila, Michelin Stars & Superyachts

PALLAVI PASRICHA

The FIFA World Cup frenzy taking over 16 cities across USA, Canada and Mexico wraps up on July 19th. Nothing beats cheering for your favourite team, but after the final whistle blows and the post-match celebrations wrap up, it's time for an indulgent North American vacation. Those overwhelmed by the adrenalin rush, slow the pace aboard luxury trains, cruise to Alaska's icy wilderness on The Ritz-Carlton's newest super yacht, or unplug at one of America's most exclusive wellness retreats. Wine and tequila lovers join scenic trails past blue agave fields in Mexico and sun kissed vineyards in Napa valley or continue the after party at trending Michelin star restaurants in Mexico City and New York.
