REGIONAL POLITICAL PARTIES

THE MONEY TRAIL

Regional parties saw their income plunge in FY25, spent more than they earned and remained heavily dependent on donations. Here are the key findings from an Association for Democratic Reforms (ADR) analysis of the income and expenditure of 36 regional parties, which have submitted their audit reports to the Election Commission of India

Text by VIPUL GROVER
Graphic by NILANJAN DAS

THE TOP EARNERS

Five parties accounted for over two-thirds of the total reported earnings in FY25

- TDP ₹228 cr.
- TMC ₹219 cr.
- YSRCP ₹140 cr.
- BRS ₹124 cr.
- BJD ₹110 cr.

₹1,193 CRORE

Total income of the 36 parties in FY25, down from ₹2,463 cr. in FY24

THE TOP SPENDERS

Five parties accounted for over three-fourths of the total reported expenditure in FY25

- YSRCP ₹340 cr.
- BJD ₹288 cr.
- TMC ₹228 cr.
- BRS ₹181 cr.
- SP ₹75 cr.

₹1,433 CRORE

Total spending of the 36 parties in FY25, 20 per cent above the cumulative earnings

Note: AGP: Asom Gana Parishad, AIADMK: All India Anna Dravida Munnetra Kazhagam, BJD: Biju Janata Dal, BRS: Bharat Rashtra Samithi, DMK: Dravida Munnetra Kazhagam, IUML: Indian Union Muslim League, JSP: JanaSena Party, LJP (RV): Lok Janshakti Party (Ram Vilas), MNS: Maharashtra Navnirman Sena, NCP: Nationalist Congress Party, SP: Samajwadi Party, TDP: Telugu Desam Party, TMC: All India Trinamool Congress, YSRCP: Yuvajana Sramika Rythu Congress Party; All figures are rounded off