SHUTTERSTOCK

Saunsthan, was built in the Saraswat style of architecture but incorporates many Portuguese features—there are shikharas jutting out of the roof of the building, a distinct identifier of some Hindu temples, as well as stained-glass panes on arched windows, a characteristic of Goan churches.
Where: Kapileswari-Kavlem Road, Donshiwado, Ponda
Main event: Annual Shantadurga Kavlem Temple Jatra (held in January or February)

SHUTTERSTOCK

MUST-SEE

PARASHURAM, THE CREATOR OF GOA

A large statue of Lord Parashuram, known as Gomantbhumi Janak Parashuram, stands tall in Campal, Panjim (near the Mandovi river), celebrating him as the creator of Goa. You can also visit the Parashuram Temple in Poinguinim village (Canacona taluka)