8 Fluid Form

Why settle for rigid seating when you can lounge on a landscape? Haruma's new Dune Arc sofa brings the fluid geometry of wind-swept deserts straight into your living room. A modular masterpiece sprawling comfortably across six to seven seats, its clever dual-depth design effortlessly shifts from upright days to deep-slouch cinema nights. Handcrafted from a tactile cocktail of leather, fabric, wood and marble, it boasts sculpted armrests with ring detailing and punchy capsule accents. It is less of a standard couch and more of a sculptural anchor that demands to be seen.
