CATCH THE WAVE

Onda, Italian for wave, is a chair (from AE Living) that proves comfort doesn't come in straight lines. With its sculptural curves and plush stone-grey weave, this statement piece strikes the rare balance between a firm embrace and total ease. It is visually fluid yet structurally grounded, inviting you to stay just a little longer. Designed with a deep nod to human ergonomics, the oversized seat offers ample space for cross-legged lounging or cocooned reading marathons. It is definitive proof that the best designs are never rigid. After all, comfort has curves and curves have never felt this good.
