

was too damaged to recover, we carefully applied textured mud-finish surfaces to maintain visual continuity with the historic fabric.

Preserving Timeless Craftsmanship

At the heart of this revival was the preservation of the structure's original spirit and its most resilient asset, century-old deodar wood. Every surviving timber element, from the handcrafted wooden staircase and traditional plank flooring to the entirely timber-framed sloping roofs, reflected a level of craftsmanship rarely witnessed today.

Rather than modernising the building beyond recognition, our interior

Architect Madhur Gupta and interior designer Nitika Mahajan are principals of Design Legends, a multidisciplinary firm based in Punjab www.designlegends.in