

In a glittering event, India Today HOME and Fenesta launched an exquisite new range of partitions and enclosures, bringing together Delhi-NCR's leading architects, interior designers and industry insiders. The evening featured an unconventional 'Unpanel' Discussion that sparked a wealth of interesting views and insightful design conversations. At the centre of it all was Saket Jain, ED and Business Head , Fenesta Building Systems, who kickstarted the evening with an inspiring speech about the infinite possibilities with Fenesta.

Two Decades of Trusted Innovation

This grand launch marks a major milestone for Fenesta, India's largest windows and doors brand, which has been synonymous with innovation, quality, and trust for over two decades. A proud subsidiary of the DCM Shriram Group (established in 1889), Fenesta has transformed how Indian homes experience windows, doors, and façades. With over 5 million installations across 900+ cities, the brand seamlessly combines product innovation with an end-to-end service ecosystem. This comprehensive process spans consultation, design, manufacturing, delivery, installation and after-sales service. While its footprint already covers uPVC and aluminium windows, solid panel doors, facades, and hardware, this latest addition of Partitions & Enclosures brings Fenesta's legendary engineering directly into interior layout design.
