Preparing for the Real World

Through hands-on exposure, digital innovation and focused mentoring, Lloyd Law College is reshaping law education in India

By SONAL KHETARPAL

Law studies are usually associated with theory and rote learning. But this is where Lloyd Law College is making a difference. Rishav Ranjan, a 2016-2021 BA LLB graduate, says he chose Lloyd because he learned that the late Prof. N.R. Madhava Menon—regarded as the father of modern legal education in India and founder of the National Law School of India University (NLSIU), Bengaluru—was associated as an advisor with the college. "Lloyd being an affiliated private college, it is able to experiment with the curriculum

GURUSPEAK

"Law is changing so fast that there is a need to go beyond academic curriculum. Forty per cent of the curriculum we teach is over and above the university's curriculum"

MANOHAR THAIRANI
President, Lloyd Law College, Greater Noida

ARUN KUMAR

LLOYD LAW COLLEGE
Greater Noida
No. 9 (2025) up from No. 17 (2020)