Fiscal & Non-Fiscal Incentives

Under the Bihar Tourism Policy 2023, eligible tourism projects can opt for either a Capital Subsidy or Interest Subvention. All eligible projects shall be eligible for the following capital subsidy under this policy:

Alternatively, investors can choose Interest Subvention, which offers up to 10% (or actual interest, whichever is lower) on term loans, reimbursed annually for five years from the start of commercial operations.

An additional 5% incentive—either as capital subsidy or interest subvention—is available for projects located in key destinations like Gaya, Bodhgaya, Nalanda, Rajgir, and Valmiki Tiger Reserve, or for enterprises where at least 51% ownership is held by individuals from SC/ST, OBC, women, third gender, or differently abled communities.

Other Fiscal Incentives

- Land Conversion Charges - 100% reimbursement on land conversion charges

- SGST Reimbursement: 80% for 7 years (max 100% of project cost).

- Stamp Duty & Registration: 100% reimbursed.

- Electricity Duty: 100% reimbursement for 5 years.

- EPF/ESI Support: ₹3,000 or 100% of employer's share (whichever lower) for hiring local youth for a period of 5 years

- Incentive for Differently Abled Employment: ₹1,500/month for up to 5 employees per unit.
