ANSHUL KAMBOJ, 24

Right-arm seamer*, Chennai Super Kings

Picking up a perfect 10-for (all wickets in one innings) will do it for you. At least, it has for young seamer Anshul Kamboj who took 10/49 for Haryana against eventual finalists Kerala in the Ranji Trophy. The Karnal lad picked up a Rs 3.4 crore pay cheque (base price: Rs 30 lakh) after his earlier team Mumbai Indians and the Chennai Super Kings got into a bidding war for him. Kamboj, also the highest wicket-taker in the Duleep Trophy 2024-25 season, only played a couple of games for MI and never got a consistent run. Hopefully, his transition to the IPL grand stage will be a lot smoother with CSK.
