

THE NEW DEAL
Tejashwi with alliance leaders at the MGB manifesto release in Patna, Oct. 28

The RJD's performance in assembly polls since 2000—from dominance, decline, to revival under Tejashwi Yadav—in partnership with allies

Oct. 2005

In the Opposition

JD(U)-BJP combine wins 143 seats together, forms government with clear majority

Oct.-Nov. 2010

Worst show

JD(U)-BJP sweep the polls, winning 206 of 243 seats; Nitish at his peak

Oct.-Nov. 2015

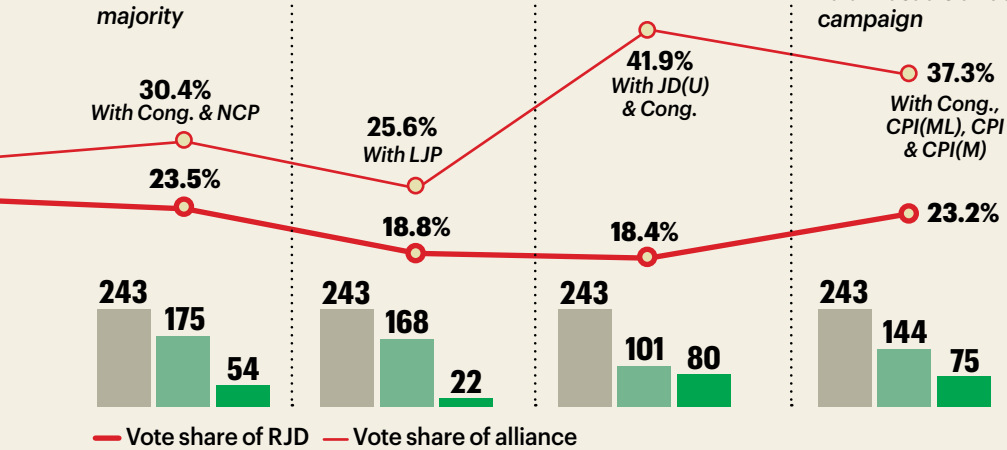

Resurgence time

Tejashwi's debut from Raghopur is a success. RJD, with Nitish and Cong., is the largest party in assembly

Oct.-Nov. 2020

Tejashwi's leadership established

RJD emerges as the single largest party in the assembly in the first poll without Lalu Prasad's direct campaign

BROADBASING SUPPORT

Caste break-up of RJD candidates

RJD's total candidates 143
Women 23

OBC 80
Yadav: 51
Kurmi: 3
Kushwaha: 15
Vaishya: 10
Sonar: 1

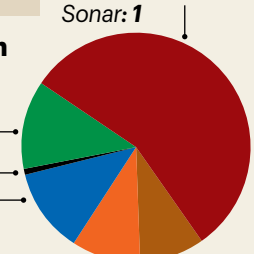

Muslim 18

ST 1

SC 17
Paswan: 5
Ravidasi: 6
Musahar: 3
Pasi: 2
Chaupal: 1

Upper castes 14
Rajput: 5
Bhumihar: 6
Brahmin: 3

EBC 13
Sudhi: 2
Chourasia: 1
Mallah: 2
Chandra-wanshi: 2
Kalwar: 2
Nonia: 2
Gangota: 1
Bind: 1

*142 valid after one rejection
NB: MGB has filed 252 nominations