▶ INDIA-UK FTA

FAIR TRADE AGREEMENT

Graphic by NILANJAN DAS & TANMOY CHAKRABORTY
Text by ANILESH S. MAHAJAN/ M.G. ARUN

WHAT INDIA GAINS

Ninety-nine per cent zero tariff access to UK markets will boost exports, presently at $23 billion

● Pre-FTA Tariff ● Post-FTA Tariff

TEXTILES & APPAREL

● 8-12% ● 0%

Potential gains: 30-45% export growth

LEATHER & FOOTWEAR

● Up to 16% ● 0%

Potential gains: MSME acceleration

GEMS, JEWELLERY, SPORTS GOODS

● ~4% ● 0%

Potential gains: Doubling of exports

PHARMA & MEDICAL DEVICES

● 0-6% ● 0%

Potential gains: <£1 bn market expansion due to price drop

ENGINEERING GOODS, AUTO PARTS, CHEMICALS

● 8-14% ● 0%

Potential gains: 30-40% sectoral growth; exports double

IT & BUSINESS SERVICES

● Non-tariff barriers
● Reduced

Potential gains: 15-20% export boost due to gains in labour mobility

AGRICULTURE & MARINE PRODUCTS

● 5-20% ● 0-low

Potential gains: Basmati & seafood production surge

RENEWABLE ENERGY COMPONENTS

● 5-12% ● 0%

Potential gains: $500 mn+ exports by 2027

EDUCATION & SKILL SERVICES

● Non-tariff barriers
● Reduced

Potential gains: Students benefit, services rise due to lesser certifications

PROCESSED FOOD & BEVERAGES

● 8-12% ● 0%

Potential gains: 20-30% export growth

2-6% on medical devices, 0% on essential drugs and 1-3% on generics*
FTA: Free Trade Agreement

"THE INDIA-UK FTA SIGNALS CONFIDENCE IN INDIA'S MANUFACTURING DEPTH, SERVICES CAPABILITIES AND GLOBAL CREDIBILITY. IF EXECUTED WELL, IT COULD SERVE AS A TEMPLATE FOR FUTURE HIGH-IMPACT TRADE PARTNERSHIPS"

RAHUL JAIN, India Head, Boston Consulting Group

