AI AGENTS FOR SERVICES & SUPPORT

PROF. KAMAL BIJLANI
Dean, School of AI, Amrita Vishwa Vidyapeetham

"Local-language AI agents can be used for admissions, tutor booking, parent support, scholarship guidance, exam preparation and career navigation"

FROM ENROLMENT TO OUTCOMES: HOW TO FIX INDIA'S LEARNING GAP

WILIMA WADHWA
Director, ASER Centre

"For the first time, teachers across the country have a shared systemic goal, not just finishing the syllabus, but ensuring children can actually read and count"

ALKA SINGH, Head of Partnerships, Educate Girls

"India has 13 crore youth not in education, employment or training. Nine crore of them are girls. If more girls are passing, why are they still not in the workforce?"

HOW SOCIAL MEDIA IS REWIRING LEARNING

ANNIE KOSHI, Principal, St. Mary's School, New Delhi

"Children learn through experiences, not just screens. Talking to a screen is not the same as talking to a friend"

THE HUMAN ADVANTAGE: SOCIAL-EMOTIONAL LEARNING IN AN AGE OF METRICS

"Emotional intelligence is as vital as intellectual intelligence—it's the human advantage. Learning isn't just about information; it's about connection, resilience and empathy"

MANJU ARIF
Principal, Delhi Public School, Bangalore North

SCREENS, STUDENTS AND SENSIBILITY: RETHINKING SOCIAL MEDIA IN EDUCATION

AMIT SEN, Director and Co-founder, Children First, Delhi

"Social media's influence is pervasive, but our focus should not be on demonising devices. If we fail to provide meaningful offline alternatives, children will naturally gravitate to what is accessible online"
