

PROF. ASHWANI KUMAR
Vice-chancellor, Saveetha Institute of Medical and Technical Sciences, Saveetha University, Chennai

"Private institutes are still deprived of government funding, but they invest what they earn to develop infrastructure and facilities. We need to think holistically and should not have the dichotomy of government and private institutions. We are all part of India and its growth story"

LEADING WITH PURPOSE: STRATEGIES FOR SCHOOL EXCELLENCE

Session chairperson Rekha Krishnan, Chief Education Officer, Education Today

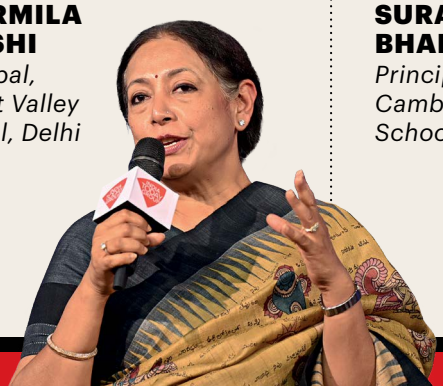

PROF. NAMITA RANGANATHAN
Department of Education, Central Institute of Education, University of Delhi

"Schooling and education are not the same... We must re-imagine school outcomes to include emotional, social and intellectual growth"

AI IN THE CLASSROOM: PROMISE, PERIL AND POSSIBILITIES

"While AI can ease administrative burden and add creativity through presentations, quizzes and storytelling, it should never undermine the educator"

SHARMILA BAKSHI
Principal, Vasant Valley School, Delhi

"Over-reliance on any tool weakens thinking... It should be a starting point, not a final answer. Students must be taught to verify outputs, question responses and understand where AI's role should stop"

SURABHI BHARGAV
Principal, Cambridge School, Noida

"Parents need to listen patiently and help children adopt AI outputs in the right way, rather than resist the technology outright"

ASHISH ARORA
Senior Vice President and Business Head, Cambridge University Press & Assessment, South Asia
