OTT ▼

TWIST IN THE TALE

KONKONA SENSHARMA PLAYS A DOCTOR ACCUSED OF SEXUAL HARASSMENT IN THE ANUBHUTI KASHYAP-DIRECTED ACCUSED

THE #METOO NARRATIVE GETS a refreshing perspective in the Netflix film Accused starring Konkona Sensharma and Pratibha Ranta (of Laapataa Ladies fame) who play a couple negotiating a crisis. In the Anubhuti Kashyap-directed drama, Sensharma plays a London-based doctor who, facing sexual harassment allegations, finds herself having to save not just her career and reputation but also her relationship.

Sensharma was lured not just by the film's unconventional gaze on a pertinent subject. The real opportunity lay in playing an ambitious woman who isn't easily likeable, carries a selfish streak and calls a spade a spade, an opportunity that's not afforded to actresses every day.

LOCKED IN Konkona Sensharma and Pratiba Ranta play a couple facing the turbulence of a #MeToo allegation close to home

THE LISTICLE

Upcoming Indian releases, theatrical and OTT, to watch out for

▼ MARCH 19 | Theatres

Dhurandhar: The Revenge

Ranveer Singh, Arjun Rampal, Sanjay Dutt, and Madhavan in Ajit Doval make-up, are set to clash in the second and final part of Aditya Dhar's magnum opus. The spy-gangster drama was shot alongside the first part that scorched the box office through December and January. The story picks up from where Hamza left it in part one, a covert operative bent on dismantling terror infrastructures in Karachi and eliminating bigger threats than before, particularly those related to the 26/11 attacks. Pakistan, here they come!

▼ MARCH 6 | Netflix

HELLO BACHHON

The indefatigable Vineet Kumar Singh (Mukkabaaz, Chhaava) headlines the Hindi series about a physics teacher trying to make quality education available to all through online learning. The creator is TVF alum Abhishek Yadav (Kota Factory, Hostel Daze), so expect a warm-hearted reality check.

