UTTAR PRADESH EMERGES AS A HUB OF CULTURAL TOURISM

"Uttar Pradesh has the capacity to become the country's largest tourism destination. Today, people from across India want to visit Kashi and Ayodhya. Unprecedented opportunities are being created for small entrepreneurs, airline companies, and hotel and restaurant owners across the state."

— Narendra Modi, Prime Minister.*

Under the PPP model, ropeway projects have been initiated in Chitrakoot, Barsana, and near the Ashtabhuja-Kalikhola complex at Maa Vindhyavasini Temple in Mirzapur.

Development of one prominent site and one lesser-known tourism-potential site in every Assembly constituency. Launch of the Chief Minister Tourism Fellowship Scheme.

Progress on the eco-tourism theme park at Ranipur Tiger Reserve, Chitrakoot, under the UP Eco Tourism Development Board, along with tourism-oriented development of ancient and heritage buildings.

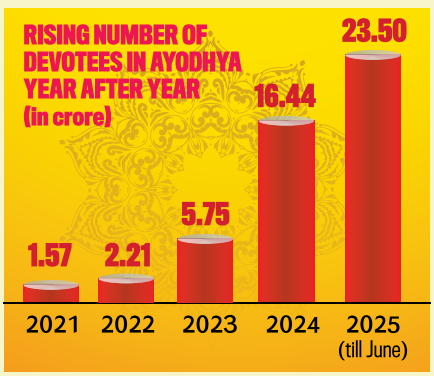

To present the state's cultural, religious, historical and natural diversity as a unified tourism destination, 12 distinctive tourism circuits have been developed.

Constitution of Ayodhya Ji Tirth Development Board, Devipatan Tirth Development Board, Braj Tirth Development Board, Vindhya Dham Tirth Development Board, Chitrakoot Dham Tirth Development Board, Naimisharanya Dham Tirth Development Board, and Shukr Tirth Development Board.

"Prime Minister Shri Narendra Modi has articulated a vision that seamlessly links faith with the economy. Under this approach, spiritual tourism holds immense potential, and if any state can become the foundation of spiritual tourism in the country, it is Uttar Pradesh."

—Yogi Adityanath,
Chief Minister of Uttar Pradesh.

TOURISM CIRCUITS SHAPING THE LANDSCAPE

- Ramayana circuit
- Bundelkhand circuit
- Krishna-Braj circuit
- Mahabharata circuit
- Shakti Peeth circuit
- Sufi-Kabir circuit
- Buddhist circuit
- Craft circuit
- Jain circuit
- Freedom struggle circuit
- Wildlife eco-tourism circuit
- Spiritual circuit