WHEN AHMEDABAD RUNS WITH HEART, IT BECOMES A LIVING TRIBUTE TO INDIA'S BRAVEHEARTS

On November 30, thousands ran not for victory but for gratitude — #Run4OurSoldiers turning footsteps into salutes, strangers into one family and the city into a heartbeat of honour for those who guard our peace.

While it was still pitch dark over the Sabarmati Riverfront Sports Park on November 30, the city was already awake with a purpose. Stretching silhouettes, the quiet shuffle of shoes and an undercurrent of anticipation slowly swelled into a powerful collective heartbeat. Ahmedabad — a city of resilience, heritage and unwavering spirit — transformed into a living tapestry of gratitude as more than 24,000 runners gathered for the 9th Adani Ahmedabad Marathon, not merely to race but to honour India's soldiers through the #Run4OurSoldiers movement.

A City Runs as One

Since its beginning in 2017, the Adani Ahmedabad Marathon has evolved from a modest tribute to India's Armed Forces into one of the nation's most cherished distance-running events. Anchored in the spirit of #Run4OurSoldiers, it has become a day when running turns into remembrance, competition becomes camaraderie, and gratitude becomes motion.

This year's flag-off mirrored the emotional weight of the occasion. Air Marshal Nagesh Kapoor, Air Officer Commanding-in-Chief of the Indian Air Force; Major General Gaurav Bagga, General Officer Commanding of the Indian Army; actor and fitness icon Mandira Bedi; Olympic medalist and Vice President of Indian Olympic Association Gagan Narang; actor and Pro Panja League co-founder Preeti Jhangiani; designer Aaquib Wani; and leaders from the Adani Group — Mr Pranav Adani, Director, Adani Enterprises Limited (AEL); Mr Karan Adani, Managing Director (MD), APSEZ; Mr Sanjay Adesara, Chief Business Officer, Adani Sportsline; Dr Sunita Godara, Marathon Queen of India; and Race Director Dave Cundy — stood together, creating a moment charged with reverence and pride.

Runners from across Gujarat, other parts of India and overseas traced a route that embraced Ahmedabad's icons — the serenity of Gandhi Ashram, the sweep of Atal Bridge, the timeless grace of Ellis Bridge. Over 4,000 personnel from
