50TH ANNIVERSARY

CLIMATE CHANGE
2005-2015

GLOBAL WARNING

Repeated disasters exposed India's climate vulnerability even as global climate leadership grew, but weak governance, reactive planning and diluted enforcement ensured awareness did not translate into meaningful mitigation

FLOOD FURY
A submerged statue of Lord Shiva amid the flooded waters of the Ganga at Rishikesh in Uttarakhand, Jun. 17, 2013

THE NATIONAL ACTION PLAN ON CLIMATE CHANGE IN 2008 MARKED INDIA'S FIRST STRUCTURED ATTEMPT TO MAINSTREAM CLIMATE CONCERNS INTO DEVELOPMENT PLANNING

REUTERS