ENHANCED GRATITUDE GRANTS AND FINANCIAL SUPPORT

In order to make the honour given for a sacrifice more dignified, Haryana has increased the Gratitude Grant for families of soldiers martyred during a war or in service from ₹50 lakh to ₹1 crore. This enhancement underscores the state's commitment to align financial recognition with the magnitude of sacrifice.

For personnel from the armed forces or paramilitary forces who die in service, similar upgrade protocols are being pursued, with the Gratitude Grant being standardised at ₹1 crore.

The state also provides special support to ex-servicemen enrolling themselves for commissions. After training, commissioned officers from Haryana receive ₹1 lakh as financial assistance. Additionally, ex-servicemen undertaking civil courses in the state receive a monthly scholarship of ₹10,000, a benefit the state has awarded since January 2017.

Elderly veterans (over 60 years) and their widows—including those from the wars of 1962, 1965, and 1971—have had their monthly allowance increased. Since 2016, this pension has been ₹3,000 per month, with an annual increase of ₹400. From Nov 2025, it has been raised to ₹6,600 per month.

Persons with disabilities (blindness, locomotor disability, leprosy- affected, haemophiliac) to have benefited from parity. Their allowance too has been increased from ₹3,000 per month in 2016 to ₹6,600 in Nov 2025, with an annual increment of ₹400.

SUPPORT FOR EDUCATION AND HEALTHCARE

In order to bolster educational support, Haryana has enhanced scholarships for students from the state enrolled in the National Indian Military College, Dehradun. Between April 2017 and now, their scholarship has gone up from ₹35,000 to ₹50,000 per annum. For veterans requiring medical aid, the Paraplegic Centre now offers an annual medical grant of ₹1.5 lakh (from March 2023) to para-victim/ ex-servicemen from Haryana.

For those awarded medals or honours under Central Government schemes (e.g. "Service / Gallantry / Distinguished Service"), before February 19, 2014 Haryana grants Rs 34,000 + Rs 3,500 per annum and a one-time grant of Rs 1.75 lakh to those who awarded after that date.

WELFARE OF WARRIORS

- Gratuity doubled from ₹50 lakh to ₹1 crore for families of war or operational martyrs
- Senior veterans' pension increased to ₹6,600 per month (2025 baseline)
- Educational grants: Students receive ₹60,000 (classes 6-12), ₹72,000 (undergraduate), ₹96,000 (postgraduate) annually
- Medical aid boost: Paraplegic veterans receive ₹1,50,000 per year; enhanced grants for medal recipients

PENSIONS, HOUSING AND INFRASTRUCTURE

The age of retirement benefits has been increased: formerly capped at 58, the eligible age has now been extended to 60 years for higher-level retired officers.

Effective from 8 November, 2021 families of fallen soldiers or paramilitary personnel of war, terror incidents or special operations are now eligible for enhanced grant of ₹35 lakh, ₹25 lakh, or ₹15 lakh — depending on the nature of the operation.

AGNIVEER RECRUITMENT PROGRAMME

Haryana has become one of the leading contributors to India's Agniveer recruitment programme, reflecting the state's strong military tradition and the enthusiasm of its youth for national service. Thousands of young men and women from Haryana have joined the Indian Armed Forces under the Agnipath scheme since its launch, supported by extensive state-level awareness campaigns and preparatory coaching initiatives. The government has also ensured post-service opportunities for Agniveers by giving them priority in recruitment to state police and allied forces. Through its proactive support, Haryana is setting an example in integrating patriotic youth engagement with long-term employment and skill development.

Importantly, the state government has allocated ₹13,540.52 crore in the 2025–26 Budget to the Soldier and Ex-Servicemen Welfare Department, reflecting financial prioritisation of their cause. As many as 418 compassionate placements (2014–2025) were made for the dependents of fallen soldiers

Haryana is setting a national benchmark in soldier welfare– offering ₹1 crore grant, education, jobs, and housing– backed by a ₹13,540-crore budget and a dedicated department for military families
