

WELFARE GOES INCLUSIVE BRINGING THOSE ON THE MARGINS INTO MAINSTREAM

Haryana leads the way in welfare reforms with schemes imaginatively redesigned to support the vulnerable – women, students, workers, and the marginalised

With a series of pointed schemes and increased financial assistance, Haryana is paving the way for socio-economic uplift of the vulnerable sections of society through structured support in marriage, education, self-employment, and legal aid. And these schemes have made a difference.

MUKHYAMANTRI VIVAH SHAGUN YOJANA

One of the flagship initiatives, the Mukhyamantri Vivah Shagun Yojana, received a significant boost earlier this year. According to the revised policy announced on February 22, 2024, financial assistance for eligible women — including those from Scheduled Castes, Backward Classes, and Economically Weaker Sections with an annual family income of up to ₹1.8 lakh — has been increased from ₹31,000 to ₹41,000.
