

HARYANA HOSTS PRIME MINISTER MODI ON 350TH SHAHEEDI DIWAS

State Government's statewide initiatives bring Guru Tegh Bahadur Ji's teachings closer to every citizen

The sacred land of Kurukshetra witnessed a profoundly historic gathering as Prime Minister Narendra Modi and Haryana Chief Minister Nayab Singh Saini joined thousands of devotees to commemorate the 350th Shaheedi Diwas of Sri Guru Tegh Bahadur Ji at Jyotisar on November 25.The revered martyr, known as Hind Di Chadar, was remembered for his supreme sacrifice in protecting the right to freedom of faith.

The grand event, organized by the Haryana Government, saw the presence of Haryana Governor Prof. Ashim Kumar Ghosh, Union Power Minister Manohar Lal, Union Minister of State for Culture Rao Inderjit Singh, Union Minister of State for Cooperation Krishan Pal Gurjar, several state ministers, MPs, MLAs, and an immense gathering of sangat from across India.

The ceremony began with the recitation of Gurbani in the holy presence of Guru Granth Sahib. The traditional greeting "Waheguru Ji Ka Khalsa, Waheguru Ji Ki Fateh" resonated through the venue as spiritual devotion merged with patriotic pride.

Addressing the sangat, Chief Minister Nayab Singh Saini welcomed everyone with "Ji Aaya Nu" and bowed in reverence to Sri Guru Tegh Bahadur Ji. He said the Guru's extraordinary courage and unwavering commitment to humanity continue to shape generations with a spirit of fearlessness.

"Haryana is the land of the Gurus. We will continue every effort to inspire future generations with their ideals and teachings," the Chief Minister affirmed. He expressed gratitude to the Prime Minister for choosing Haryana to honour the legacy of the ninth Sikh Guru.

> "Haryana is the land of the Gurus. We will continue every effort to inspire future generations with their ideals and teachings"
>
> – Nayab Singh Saini, Chief Minister