50TH ANNIVERSARY

MODI ERA
2015-2025

LEADING BY EXAMPLE
Modi joins schoolchildren to promote Swachh Bharat Mission, Oct. 2, 2024

SWACHH BHARAT MISSION
LAUNCHED
OCT. 2, 2014
TOTAL TOILETS BUILT
120 MILLION
LEGACY WASTE REMEDIATED
58%

ANI

PM YOJANAS

THE WELFARE BUFFET

From gas connections to piped water, Jan Dhan to health insurance, there seemed to be a scheme for every aspect of citizens' lives

IN 2014, Narendra Modi had seemed a man in a hurry. Never had someone been so eager to leave his stamp on the nation, and quickly at that, outdoing the legacy of his predecessors. The BJP strongman had come to power on the ticket of achhe din, and he was determined to deliver them from day one. The first initiative was a novel one: to erase the image of India as a dirty, unsanitary country. Swachh Bharat, as the mission was called, spurred a toilet-building spree across the landscape, in an ambitious bid to end open defecation. Financial inclusion followed next, in the guise of a Jan Dhan Yojana to bank the country's unbanked millions. Together, they set the template