VISHNU DEO SAI, 61

Chhattisgarh CM since December 2023

A tribal leader with parliamentary experience, Sai's elevation broadened the BJP's social coalition. Soft-spoken and organisationally seasoned, he is seen as a unifying figure amid internal factionalism.

BHUPENDRA PATEL, 63

Gujarat CM since September 2021

Quiet, efficient and firmly on the central leadership's radar, Patel—who began his political career in Ahmedabad's municipal bodies—succeeded a line of high-profile CMs in the BJP's citadel.

BHAJAN LAL SHARMA, 59

Rajasthan CM since December 2023

A former sarpanch who rose steadily through the ranks, Sharma was a first-time MLA when elevated to the top job—marking a clean break from Rajasthan's entrenched factional heavyweights.

NAYAB SINGH SAINI, 55

Haryana CM since March 2024

Replacing Manohar Lal Khattar, Saini represented the BJP's bet on a non-Jat OBC leader with grassroots links— a strategic shift that paid dividends when he steered the party to victory later that year.

REKHA GUPTA, 51

Delhi CM since February 2025

A first-time MLA anointed to the top post, Gupta emerged from the hurly-burly of Delhi University politics, later honing her organisational skills as an MCD councillor.

PRAMOD SAWANT, 52

Goa CM since March 2019

Among the earliest examples of the BJP's fresh-face CM template, Sawant—a former Ayurveda doctor with a technocratic bent—swiftly filled the void left by Manohar Parrikar's demise.
