NEERAJ CHOPRA, First Indian to win an Olympic gold in athletics (javelin), at India Today Conclave 2021

“Anytime I’m about to compete, I give it my 100% so that later I have no regrets about not doing everything I could have. I don’t focus on the distance as much. I just focus on doing my best”

“What exactly did Manu Bhaker tell Jaspal Rana? “I told him if I want to shoot, I want to shoot only with you,” she recounts. “That I am thinking of leaving shooting altogether.” Rana, otherwise known to be a stern taskmaster, melted. That meeting would prove to be a turning point in Manu’s life. At the Paris Olympics this July–August, she not only won two bronzes to become India’s first female shooter to win a medal but also the first athlete in independent India to win two medals at a single Olympics.”
