

Irrfan Khan
2016

Photograph by
BANDEEP SINGH

A globally acclaimed actor, Irrfan embodied Islam's compassionate spirit while mourning rituals that spill innocent blood. In a performative portrait done around the backlash he faced for his radical views against 'qurbani', the ritual sacrifice of goats and sheep in Islam, emotion flowed freely as he asked: must faith demand sacrifice, or can mercy itself be our greatest offering to the divine?