The Listicle

Upcoming concerts by Western musicians of many genres

▼ APR. 21 | Shillong; APR. 24 | Gurugram; APR. 26 | Bengaluru; APR. 30 | Mumbai

Scorpions: Coming Home Live India Tour

German hard rock legends Scorpions return to India after nearly two decades with their 'Coming Home' tour. With more than 100 million records sold worldwide, fans can expect soaring vocals, blistering guitar solos and the unmistakable arena energy that has defined the group's live shows for decades.

▲ MAR. 20 | Mumbai; MAR. 21 | New Delhi; MAR. 22 | Bengaluru

Jack Gardiner India Tour

A new generation of fusion guitar takes centrestage as Jack Gardiner brings his technically dazzling sound to India. Born in Liverpool and now based in Switzerland, Gardiner has earned international acclaim for his precision, expressive phrasing and genre-blending approach. He is joined by bassist Henrik Linder, keyboardist Rob Araujo and drummer Porter Bliquez.

▼ MAR. 29 | Jawaharlal Nehru Stadium, New Delhi

YE LIVE IN INDIA

One of the most anticipated international shows in India this year, it promises a sweeping journey through Ye's (formerly known as Kanye West) influential catalogue, featuring defining tracks such as 'Heartless', 'Runaway', 'Gold Digger' and 'Jesus Walks'.

▼ APR. 17 | Bengaluru; APR. 18 | Mumbai ; APR. 19 | Gurugram

Calvin Harris India Tour

Electronic music heavyweight Calvin Harris brings his arena-sized energy to India with a three-city tour. Known for chart-topping collaborations and festival-defining hits, the Scottish DJ and producer has shaped the sound of contemporary dance music for over a decade.

▼ MAR. 28-29 | Tata Theatre, NCPA, Mumbai

The NCPA Soulful Blues Festival

The festival brings two commanding voices of contemporary blues for a weekend steeped in rhythm and soul. Canadian singer Shakura S'Aida opens it with a vibrant mix of roots, R&B and blues, enriched by the distinctive sound of the lap steel guitar. The following evening sees American blues powerhouse Sugaray Rayford take the stage, known for his electrifying presence and rich, old-school vocal style reminiscent of Muddy Waters and Otis Redding.

—compiled by Nikhil Sardana

