

SERVING MEMORY Clockwise from left, stills from Impressions of Mingling, Tremors and Dhushor, inset filmmaker Purandar Chaudhuri

ART ▼

MELANCHOLIC JOURNEY

AN EXHIBITION BASED AROUND THREE EXPERIMENTAL FILMS BY PURANDAR CHAUDHURI EXPLORES THEMES OF MEMORY, MIGRATION, ERASURE AND SURVIVAL

TOWN OF ART A music event (right) and an art show (below) at the Bengaluru Art Weekend 2025

ART FESTIVAL ▼

An Immersive Experience

THE GARDEN CITY WILL UNLEASH ITS ARTISTIC ENERGY DURING THE BENGALURU ART WEEKEND

The second edition of Bengaluru Art Weekend is all set to be held across multiple venues in the city. Part of a larger platform, which also hosts editions in Delhi and Mumbai, the event is presented by Svasa Life, a luxury lifestyle publication and community, and Usual Suspects, a contemporary art collective.

The festival will feature exhibitions, performances and conversations across the city. Venues include Sabha, Kaash Space, KYNKYNY Art Gallery, Gallery Time and Space, Urbs Indis Library, Raw Mango and WeWork, among others. Alongside curated visual art exhibitions, visitors can enjoy performances by emerging musicians as well as panel discussions that explore intersections between art, culture, cinema, fashion, music and architecture.

The line-up also includes fireside chats with filmmaker Anurag Kashyap (hosted by writer Suman Kumar) and designer Sanjay Garg, in addition to discussions on architecture and culture involving several leading voices from the industry.

This year's theme, 'Second Nature', draws from the IT city's distinctive cultural identity. "Bengaluru is a city with a global audience, and 'Second Nature' em-

