Saluting the Power and Resilience of Indian Women

POONAM SHARMA

Chairperson, Accurate Group of Institutions

International Women's Day is a meaningful occasion in India, where women continue to shape the nation's progress across education, science, and leadership. Inspirational figures such as Nirmala Sitharaman, Falguni Nayar, Sudha Murty, Gagandeep Kang, Mary Kom, and Kiran Mazumdar-Shaw exemplify the impact of vision and perseverance. While India has made encouraging strides in women's empowerment, continued efforts are essential to ensure equality, opportunity, and an environment where every woman can learn, lead, and succeed.

Poonam Sharma, Chairperson of Accurate Group of Institutions, has played a pivotal role in shaping the institute into one of the prominent management education destinations in Delhi-NCR. Under her leadership, the institution has steadily grown in reputation and academic excellence. In recognition of her contribution to the field of education, she has been honoured with the prestigious Rastriya Shiksha Ratna Award by ASSOCHAM and The Education Post, and was recently conferred with the Devi Award by The New Indian Express Group.

Poonam Sharma, Chairperson of Accurate Group of Institutions, stands as a guiding force in the field of education, known for her strong values, visionary outlook, and unwavering commitment to academic excellence. Under her leadership, the institution has evolved into one of the leading management education hubs in Delhi-NCR. Her journey reflects thoughtful leadership, strategic foresight, and a deep belief in the transformative power of education.

Her academic foundation in International Business Management laid the path for a purposeful career dedicated to shaping young minds. In 2006, driven by a vision to contribute to India's progress through quality education, she established the Accurate Institute of Management and Technology. Within a few years, her dynamic leadership and clear vision propelled its growth into the widely respected Accurate Group of Institutions, known today for its academic rigor and industry-oriented approach.

Where Simplicity Meets Strong Leadership

Poonam Sharma's leadership is defined by clarity of thought and a grounded, pragmatic approach. Known for her simplicity and sharp foresight, she believes that effective leadership lies in making timely, well-considered decisions while staying true to one's values. Her ability to balance resilience with empathy allows her to build strong teams and foster a culture of mutual respect within the institution. For her, simplicity is not just a personal trait but a guiding philosophy—one that keeps the focus firmly on purpose, progress, and people.

Equally important to her leadership style is the spirit of collaboration. Poonam Sharma places immense value on teamwork, encouraging an environment where faculty and staff feel respected, motivated, and aligned with the institution's vision. Her calm yet decisive demeanor, combined with disciplined time management and strategic thinking, has been instrumental in driving the steady growth of the Accurate Group of Institutions.

Looking ahead, her vision remains ambitious and forward-looking—to build a world-class university with cutting-edge infrastructure and a strong academic ecosystem. With determination and clarity of purpose, she continues to guide the institution towards new benchmarks of excellence in higher education.

Shaping the Future of Inclusive Education

Creating opportunities for young women through scholarships, mentorship, and focused academic programs is essential to encourage their participation in traditionally male-dominated fields such as STEM. Increasing female representation in these sectors not only promotes equity but also helps unlock the full potential of talent and innovation in society.

At the same time, education is rapidly evolving. The shift from rote learning to experiential and technology-driven models has transformed how students engage with knowledge. Tools like virtual
