

FADING BOUNDARIES
A camera trap in May 2025 captured a Bengal tiger in the Sunderdhunga Glacier Valley, at nearly 9,875 feet; right, a leopard suspected of killing a boy was trapped in a cage in Rudraprayag district in early February

SPECIAL REPORT
WILDLIFE

CORRIDORS OF CONFLICT

IN UTTARAKHAND, TIGERS ARE APPEARING WHERE THEY WERE ONCE UNKNOWN AND LEOPARDS ARE NO LONGER RARE INTRUDERS, FUELLING CONFLICT, AND LEAVING SCORES OF DEATHS AND INJURIES IN THEIR WAKE

BY AVANEESH MISHRA in Uttarakhand